Do me the favour of transmitting the enclosed Memorandum to my highly esteem'd and kind friend Daniel Stuart Esq. Boston – and also kindly to Father Daniel Stuart to buy highly esteem'd and convenient to Mr Ebenezer Pettigrew and his good Lady. Those Americans of the right sort I am sure I dont fail to introduce them to. S. C.

Many thanks for your Article in the Evangelist. I hope they will appear in a Volume. I thought the Leader bore yours — Mine but an unread man and as this had been in Scotland carried with it.
Admission to the Scotch Kirk but with the Kirk Lepers — piety was not deemed requisite in Elders — Nor even in Ministers — and they admitted all who offered. In the Establishment, if a person was refused admission or excluded from fellowship he could raise a Civil Action for injury to his character & the Civil Courts could adjudicate in the Matter & award him damages — or so, I believe, Command his admission.
There is no Evidence until this hour of any person of the Jew chosen to attend to bring in this Matter — but the Jew will unquestionably benefit from the proofs in Chief they have entered. If you want more information I can give it — as I happen to have studied these points closely.
I have just opened the 1st Number of the Revivalist & Anglo American Magazine — the title seems to take very well. I commend it to your care.
Work soon and often and then Abide & Command
Yours fraternally
James Carlile

I hope you received my letter about Hopes Jones in Hs Majesty — and also the Sentence with my Sketch of St Mungo.

I hope to send you a parcel on this day week by one of the New York liners; and if, as I expect, I can send it by the friendly of the Sailors' Society, its conveyance will cost you nothing. I will address it to the care of Mr Tobyn. I hope it will contain all you require. Capt Allenby's third volume will not be ready for some weeks. The Congregational Library is explained in the Congregational Calendar - and I have a hope of securing the requisite information about Dr Williams' Library for Dr Jenks. This I cannot accomplish just now. I hope to give you in the early number of the Christian Witness a much more full account of Regium donum than has yet appeared. 'O Donoughue on Marriage' is not of any value. He left the Church - joined us - and badly died - and left his Funeral to the Unitarians.

My Dear Brother,

We will despatch all preliminaries about taking Premises and "fixing the Terms" with an Remark – You are an American – I am an Irishman – having had the peculiar happiness of being born in my native land – that you remain what you are, and I what I am, ask me to do anything, and my services are at your Commands.

I have Succeeded in arranging for the Exchanges with the Evangelist. They all begin Now, and I have Secured Seventeen two pages in the book with the Patriot and the Witness. Mr Bidwell must pay the postage on all these papers, but not that which they pay on his papers. I have seen the Evangelist Sent from this Date – the Advises are – Nonconformist, Cam Court, West St – Patriot Yard Court, West West – & Witness – High St – Edinburgh.
